Responding to a Gunman in a House of Worship

“What do I do if a shooter comes in?”

Ever since the tragedy in Sutherland Springs, TX, many worshippers have asked this question. We are teaming with ALICE Training Institute® to address the fallacies and realities of various response options and include hands-on practice. This session will begin to build muscle memory and confidence in the proactive response options to increase survivability in the face of violence.

This is not a lecture. This is a one-hour hands-on interactive session.

Date: August 15, 2018
